The dominant, confident, creative and extrovert leos! by Samantha Kirk

Article published on March 2nd 2012 | Art

Born between July 23rd and August 22nd, the Leos are the most dominant and extrovert of all the zodiac signs. Like a lion – the King of all beasts, they have bear grandeur in manner and personality like a cloak. Similarly, like a lion they are born leaders and enjoy being in a position where they can take control and lead others. They are at their best element when they are in the position to command. They are uncomplicated people as they speak out what is in their minds or give opinions without keeping it inside. Leonians are extremely ambitious and they tend to think, act and achieve bigger which tends to daunt the others around them. When they are met with obstacles, they tend to thrive on them and tend to take them as challenges rather than setbacks.

The characteristics of Leo make them idealistic and honorable. They enjoy doing things with grandeur which makes them look pompous, snobbishly superior and overbearing. But, Leos who are on the negative side tend to be extremely unpleasant human beings with characteristic of being extremely arrogant and egoistic, haughty, autocratic pride and a good amount of nasty temper. They will not hesitate to use cunning, trickery and lies when suspicious of their rivals and to achieve their goals.

A Leo child will be like a lion, strong and with a lot of will. The child has a confidence which come from the belief that he is the King of the house. Everything around him has to be perfect including the décor of the house. He might display a temper that blows the roof when things are delayed. For example, if his milk is delayed his wail can be heard through the entire neighborhood. They demand attention from those around them and never like to be left out, a Leo baby can be dealt better with logic than being harsh or using physical force. They absorb and learn things really fast as they are natural learners. Laziness is the only thing that might stall a child; otherwise he has a will power to do anything he wants to. They don't seek adventure, but when one comes their way they don't let go and try to indulge in it.

In professional life, they do well in whatever they choose and try to reach the top of the ladder. They make good politician and don't settle for anything less than a powerful position. In any business, one can find a Leo in the chairman position or one among the board of directors or as managers; they are never completely in the bottom the line. They are not very good judge of characters. As they are open and Frank, they think those around them are also the same and are quickly disillusioned because of this. They also tend to have a lot of favoritism and dislikes for those around them. Leo are equally sensitive, but they portray a tough image which tends to intimidate others and make them think that they are immovable.

In a relationship, a Leo typical to his characteristic will be open, sincere, genuine and trusting. Typical to doing things in a grand manner, they can very romantic and charming and express it in a grand way. They make their partner feel special as long as the relationship lasts. Their attraction to the opposite gender often makes them go through one relationship to the other. But they are loyal and genuine as long as the relationship lasts. Their attraction to the opposite gender might be the reason for problems in their marriage. But, once they truly love someone they remain loyal and honorable.
