

Article Side

Attractions That Raise the Splendour of Manila to Cloud Nine by Samwalker

Article published on July 3rd 2012 | Aviation

Oozing froth of fun, excitement and leisure, Manila is the economic, cultural as well as recreational hub of the Philippines. The city brings light to the astonishing charms of Philippines in a beautiful manner and lets the travellers dig deep into nation's vibrant contrasts.

Travellers surely put great efforts in netting airline tickets to Manila to unearth the awe-inspiring splendour of the city. While the city boasts numerous charms to list down, here is a little smattering of some of the most vivacious and incredibly beautiful traps that wins the hearts of travellers booking air tickets to Manila.

City Marikina Shoe Museum

Contrasting its small size, City Marikina Shoe Museum offers a big and astonishing experience to the vacationers taking tickets to Manila. The museum narrates story of the history of the shoe industry in Marikina, shoe-making capital of Philippines. The museum houses former Philippine presidents and first ladies and 1,500 pairs that belonged to Imelda Marcos.

Chinatown Manila

A fairytale land for every shopping freak willing to bag some beautiful souvenirs, Chinatown Manila is a highly pulsating and lively shopping market in the city. A visit to Chinatown remains a must for every traveller taking air tickets to the Manila. The market is a treasure trove of local traditional goods set up for sale at hard to believe prices. With noises of shouting vendors, jovial crowds and thousands of small and big stalls, Chinatown seems like a vibrant painting painted with colours of life and vigour.

Ocean Park

Those interested in witnessing the beautiful underwater life dotted with florescent colours, Ocean Park of Manila is the perfect place to visit. The park houses a marvellous range of marine life including multiple species of sharks. Travellers visiting the Ocean Park may also partake in some exciting snorkelling or diving expedition to explore the most beautiful facets of the underwater world untouched from the fake glitters of the outside world.

Rizal Park

Renowned with the name of Luneta Park in the past, Rizal Park is the located in the centre of Manila overlooking the Manila Bay. The convenient setting of the park raises its popularity among the travellers visiting this beautiful city. Rizal Park holds great historical significance and used to be the focal point for festivities in the Philippines' history. The blissful ambience and lush greenery of the park enriches the overall experience of the vacationers visiting here.

Enchanted Kingdom

For the little angels accompanying their parents on holidays to Manila, the Enchanted Kingdom theme park is a worthwhile place to visit. With some marvellous attractions such as thrilling rides like the Grand Carousel, Flying Fiesta, Rialto, Space Shuttle, Log jam, Wheel of Fate, Condor, Roller Coaster, Anchors Away, Stone Eggs and many more, Enchanted Kingdom casts a magical spell on the travellers who wish to relive their childhood memories.

Manila is a true charmer. The fun, the excitement and the enthrallment that this city presents hypnotise the mind of the holidaymakers for ever and ever!

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/aviation-articles/attractions-that-raise-the-splendour-of-manila-to-cloud-nine.htm> - Article Side

Samwalker - About Author:

Sam walker is a travel consultant. He writes many articles on holiday destinations, travel safety tips, luxury hotel and on a cheap air tickets to Philippines, Pakistan, UAE booking tips.

Article Keywords:

holiday destinations in Asia, tourist attractions in manila, City Marikina Shoe Museum, Chinatown manila

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!