What comes into your mind the moment you think about Nepal? Temples, isn't it? But there are various attractions as well other than the temples for which the country is known the world over. You would get to familiarize yourself with various aspects of Nepal when you take a tour to its capital. Kathmandu is capital of Nepal and is the largest city as well. Due to a high demand in the number of visitors taking an expedition to the city, the tourism industry has significantly seen an evolution. Several passionate ramblers book flights to Kathmandu to make their journey a lifetime affair to remember. The sightseeing spots are just mind-blowing and they take you on a joy ride.

The Nepalese capital is in shape of a Khukuri knife and you would be surprised to know that the history dates back to 2000 years. What not can you find in Kathmandu? You would find the history embossed in every corner of the city. Located in the bowl shaped Kathmandu valley, the city of Kathmandu is the cultural hub of Nepal.

There are plenty of things to do in Kathmandu that will keep you busy during your visit to the city. If you are adventure lover, you can go for some hiking and trekking trips as well. You would just love to come across some breathtaking scenic spots which are mesmerizing. You can make your way to the known temples such as Boudhanath Temple, Pashupatinath, Changu Narayan and Swyambhunath Temple.

There are various Kathmandu tourist attractions that comprise a number of caves, durbars, beautiful trekking areas and the list goes on. You can pay a visit to the site of Durbar Square which is a must visit spot. It is wonderfully adorned and is loaded with some attractive wooden carvings. How about visiting the popular spot of Khumbu in Kathmandu? You can grab flights to Kathmandu. It is also known as the Everest region. It is an ideal place for shopping.

Kathmandu is often called "The Gateway to Nepal" and "Gateway of Mount Everest". How about heading to Nagarkot? It is actually not situated inside the city but is in Bhaktapur, which is a part of Kathmandu valley. It is a place for all those people who are fond of nature and culture. You can take a glimpse of the first light in the early morning.

The city has become a hub for all the day-trippers who want are looking forward for a mesmerizing vacation abroad.
