Popular Tourist Gems That Make South India Shine by Samwalker

Article published on January 30th 2012 | Aviation

The spell of southern India is no less riveting than the northern part of the country. With sheer natural splendour, striking Dravidian culture and exceptionally warm people, South India has always been admired by hordes of holidaymakers.

Bangalore

The Silicon Valley of India, Bangalore ensures no-dull moments to its guests. Dotted with fascinating temples and churches like Holy Trinity Church, Bull Temple and Maha Bodhi Society Temple, the city spiritually welcomes the visitors bagging air tickets to Bangalore. With posh UB City and Vittal Mallya Road and vivacious M.G Road/Brigade Road, the metropolis also offers a blissful experience of retail therapy to shoppers travelling on air tickets to Bangalore.

Trivandrum

The capital city of renowned Indian state of Kerala, Trivandrum is revered as the evergreen city of India. Flaunting some of the legendary historical structures, museums and other sightseeing attractions, the city never dismays the high spirits of visitors grabbing tickets to Trivandrum.

Hyderabad

Portraying an extraordinary melange of old and new, Hyderabad is a place to peek into the glory of India. Spending some time at its spectacular attractions like Charminar, Mecca Masjid, Golconda Fort, Archival Museum and Birla Mandir, is well worth the money spent on airline tickets to Hyderabad.

Chennai

One of the largest cities in India, Chennai is a city of temples and priests. The utterly vibrant culture of the city infuses the air with joie de vivre and spellbinds you with its awe-inspiring arts, music and dance scene. Holidaymakers booking air tickets to Chennai can enjoy a dulcet stroll at Marina Beach or can immerse in the stillness of serenity of Basilica of the National Shrine of St.Thomas.
