Honeymooners look up for International honey moon destinations to immerse themselves in the joy and happiness of serene and calm atmosphere. They need solitude together and lot of fun, while they visit strange and interesting places and Singapore is one of such International honeymoon destinations.

In International Honeymoon Packages, these three important places at Singapore will enhance the delight of the honeymooner:

• Singapore Botanic garden which has beautiful lakes, animals, interesting lizards, flowers and plants, and also rare specimen of the region's first rubber tree orchards, which is open daily and takes almost 2 hours for one to walk through, during one's honeymoon packages tour

• National Orchid Garden, having lovely paths and walkways, giving opportunity to enjoy seeing variety of orchids in the world

• Singapore Zoo, which hosts variety of animals pleasing everyone's taste and interest and also giving opportunity for a boat ride in a lake for watching water based animals.

The honeymooner who takes up International Honeymoon Packages to Singapore will also have the chance and pleasure of visiting a number of shopping locations, which include

• Campong Glam, a historical district in Singapore hosting colourful shops and restaurants, where one can also have hearty shopping at Bugis Junction, an ever alive Bugis Street market.

• Holland Village, which is situated along Lorong Mambarg, hosting live music joints and a treasure trove for those crave for arts and crafts, and it is here one can buy things from Lim's Arts and Living, a mammoth store for these items.

• China Town, made up of exotic pre-war shop houses, including Chinese emporium Yue Hwa, selling authentic Chinese products.

• Little India, composed of variety of shopping joints, particularly the world famous 24 hour shopping joint, Mustafa Centre, besides Tekka Market food joints, and a number of lanes and avenues hosting shops of variety of items

• Orchard Road, which delivers items of one's heart's content, with its Tangling Shopping Centre, ION Orchard and Orchard Central

Travel agents organise International Honeymoon Packages covering Singapore exclusively or combining other destinations which include Malaysia and the tour price would normally take care of:

• Air fare for the entire passage

• Airport taxes

• Visa expenses in the intermediary countries

• Travel insurance for the entire tour period

â€¢Hotel accommodation and breakfasts

â€¢Local transfers and local tour arrangements

The honeymooners can make their own Honeymoon packages by taking flights to Paris from India and make local tour arrangements, however, the International Honeymoon Packages structured and managed by Travel agents will always have their admirable professional touch.
