

Article Side

4 of the Most Expensive GPS Fleet Devices by Heather S. Rea

Article published on March 22nd 2012 | Business

GPS Fleet devices have been such practical gadgets to every big fleet business operator. They've been buying these units to further increase the revenues of their present business model. Fleet management software has many advantages in a business, it will help you identify the issues you have inside your fleet, and it can also give you a prompt if in case something untoward happens to your vehicle. You will also be informed about the up-to-date location of your fleet. It keeps life easier for you and work, more efficient.

In this informative article, the author will list the top 4 most expensive GPS Fleet devices you can purchase today.

Northstar

8000i

It's a $5,369.05 worth of GPS Fleet device utilized for boats. It's a touch screen device from where you'll be able to handle all the functions of the GPS device. From Navigation, entertainment, chartplotter, radar, depth sounder, video and network camera, the Northstar 8000i was designed for the boat owner who would like a comprehensive system management for their fleet. This device has DVD, CD, video and a digital music player for leisure purposes. Now, you also have a chance to relax while overseeing your ongoing fleets.

Raymarine

E02013

A $3,899 worth of fleet management software which has one 12.1 inch screen with a display of 800X600 pixel resolution. It is similar to the Northstar with entertainment purpose benefits. It is also meant to be utilized in a boat most especially if you want to go fishing as it carries a digital fish finder! Isn't that great?! Another advantage you will get here is it's a waterproof device which can stand from 14 to 122 degrees F and has the ability to show up-to-date animated weather forecasts.

Garmin

GPS Map 5012

At $3,383 a pop, this fleet management software can display you the map of the world. It offers high satellite resolution images that may even add more detailed maps to better display the present location. This is beneficial to discovering any problems that might come the fleet's way. This fleet management software is additionally equipped with an SD memory card.

Delphi

TNR8000

It's a $1,877 worth of fleet management device with a dash-in navigation system for 2003 onwards Cadillac and GMC SUVs. The features of the same goes like this, a 6.5 inch touch screen to control all the original functions of the vehicle, which include the DVD player, CD player and the radio. Additionally, it has the vehicle speed in order that it gives accurate and much better GPS reception.

Fleet management software was designed to manage and support your fleets. These kinds of fleet management software are built to meet large fleet business's™ needs. Even though GPS devices prices have gone down in the past months, some fleet company owners still think it is pricey or a lot for their budget to reach. The fleet management business is one of the largest businesses we have right now, and acquiring a fleet management software will truly enable you to reduce your expenses. Grab the latest fleet management software nowadays and increase your business revenue!

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/4-of-the-most-expensive-gps-fleet-devices.htm> - Article Side

Heather S. Rea About Author:

RTA offers a feature rich a Fleet Maintenance System to fit your company's budget. A a Fleet Maintenance Software to manage your fleet today.

Article Keywords:

fleet management, fleet maintenance software, fleet maintenance, fleet management training

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!