Black Hummer Limousines – Ideal for Outdoor Parties by Julia Roger

Article published on June 2nd 2012 | Business

Hummer limousines are very popular for city ride and wedding parties. They started to become popular during past decade. And this popularity never dropped down. Even in this era where numerous different types of cars are seen rushing through the streets, black hummer remains a symbol of class and royalty. Most of the people prefer to hire these limos for party and other ceremonial purpose. However, it was not developed for this purpose. The main reason for its evolution was for military usage. It was considered to be the best alternative to lighter trucks and jeeps. For more than two decades, hummer limos were used only for military missions. However, it was the year of 1991 when these super stretched vehicles were introduced before the masses. Since its introduction, these limos have been a huge hit among the public.

Presently, there are different hummer vehicles available. However, the most popular of all these are the black shaded limos that have a sitting capacity of 20-24 passengers. Black party limo or hummers are extremely popular for stag, hen, concert events, birthday parties, and even funeral purpose. Limousines are also used for wedding purpose. However, it is the white shaded ones that are preferred over black. Very recently, there have been some hummers that are of pink shades. These are becoming popular among the female community. Celebrating hen night outs or women centric events, while hiring pink party limo, is quite popular these days in US and UK.

These limos do feature a lot of comfort and additional facilities. Inside these vehicles, comfortable sofa arrangements are done. There is breakfast table to enjoy some quality food sessions. Mini refrigerator, LCD television, disco lights, Hi-Fi sound system, DVD player, private area, etc are some of the facilities that are available within these luxurious vehicles.
