For those of you, who are interested in buying real estate, it is worth considering Montezuma Real estate. Montezuma is considered to be one of the safest and the most beautiful beaches in the Costa Rica. The landscape around Montezuma is stunning, boasting of beautiful long stretches of white sand beaches amidst rocky outcroppings. The village is bordered by a cascade which splashes into the sea and the hills are covered with tropical forest that is home to a large variety of animals. You will find iguanas, kinajous, jaguar, capuchin, howler monkey, and several species of colorful birds in Montezuma. Most of the properties listed in Montezuma offer impressive views of the gulf and the open sea.

What makes Montezuma real estate so popular and unique is its strong international community. A large percentage of residents here are artists, craftspeople, creative chefs, builders, and people involved in the healing arts. The availability of fabulous restaurants serving local Costa Rican dishes and fine international cuisines like Asian and Mediterranean further adds to the growing popularity of Montezuma real estate.

Then there are several grocery stores that offer fresh produce and imported wines and a variety of souvenir, clothing shops, art gallery, and many Internet cafes. Montezuma hosts a variety of economy and luxury hotels and a large selection of cabinas with kitchenettes offered at affordable rates. To cater to the large influx of tourists, Montezuma has several private beaches, as well as luxury villas.

Although, one can buy Montezuma real estate anywhere in the region, people have settled along the 7 Km road from Cobano to Montezuma. Cobano is the commercial center of the entire region known as the Southern Nicoya Peninsula. Here you will find full service banks, several super markets, hardware stores, a post office, a pharmacy, a clinic, various restaurants, internet caf  , gas station, and governmental departments. Life in and around Cobano is very rural and resembles the typical Costa Rican country life.

Another interesting places in and around Montezuma for buying real estate are Delicias and Cabuya. Cabuya village is located approximately 7 km south of Montezuma and here turquoise waters hug the beaches offering spectacular views to the residents. Properties in Delicias offer commanding views of the Pacific Ocean and cost less than the beach properties in Montezuma.
