Calming and Sleeping in Bolivia by Bharatbook

Article published on April 19th 2012 | Business

During the review period, consumer lifestyles in Bolivia became busier and more stressful due to economic development, longer working hours, rising urbanisation and various other factors. As a result, more people began to suffer from insomnia, mild anxiety and similar stress-related problems. Together with improvements in distribution and the growing willingness of consumers to self-medicate for minor health complaints, these trends continued to drive demand for calming and sleeping products in...
