Could Pavement Signs help to advertise your business? by Mary Porter

Article published on June 29th 2012 | Business

It is essential for any bar, restaurant, shop or other retail outlet to stand out from the crowd on a busy high street, and one of the best ways of ensuring that customers choose your store over others is to invest in eye catching pavement signs.

There are all kinds of pavement signs to choose from, from smaller pavement signs advertising one special deal to large pavement signs which contain plenty of information about the products that a brand offers.

When buying pavement signs there are a number of things to keep in mind – as well as looking inviting and giving customers the information they need, pavement signs should be sturdy and able to withstand wind, rain or any other kind of inclement weather.

The right pavement signs should also be made from a durable material which is suitable for outside use and will not rust or spoil, and will also be available for a competitive price which is affordable for buyers.

Here at Express Displays we specialise in pavement signs and our range of pavement signs is one of the most comprehensive around, ranging from banner stands to portable displays, outdoor flags and outdoor A frames.

One of the main reasons why our display boards are some of our best selling options is that they are competitively priced. Many of our customers choose our standard Accelerate A sign board, which is an ideal option for all kinds of clients and is available for just £49.99. This pavement signs solution can accommodate A1 posters and is extremely easy to use, simply snapping shut when a poster has been fitted.

These pavement signs are double sided, ensuring that customers approaching a bar, restaurant, shop or other outlet from any direction will be drawn in by an eye catching poster and stylish pavement signs design.

If you are looking for pavement signs to advertise your business then visit us here at Express Displays and find the best pavement signs for your needs and budget. We are a leading provider of pavement signs and we can meet any pavement signs requirements.
