Cupcakes are all the rage at the moment, soaring in popularity and overtaking donuts as the most popular American snack. And it's not hard to see why. With their delicious icing, unique designs and scrumptious sponge, they are the perfect snack to enjoy!

More and more people are choosing cupcakes for their parties over more traditional cakes. From christenings to birthday bashes, you'll often find a cupcake stand bulging with delicious cakes for guests to enjoy. Using a cupcake stand to display your cupcakes is an eye-catching way of showcasing your prized desserts. Available in a variety of designs and sized, they allow you to display your cupcakes in the best way possible. Different tiers let you group similar colour cupcakes together, or spread out your colourful cakes out on the cupcake stand for a visual treat.

Many brides and grooms now favour cupcakes over a tradition wedding cake. The fantastic advantage of cupcakes is that your guests are all free to take an individual cake each to enjoy at their leisure. A large cupcake stand lets you accommodate a enough cupcakes so all your guests are guaranteed a taste. The top of the cupcake stand may hold a large cupcake which the happy couple cut. The cupcakes on the cupcake stand may even be displayed in handy cake boxes so guests can take a cake away from the wedding in a readymade container.

Choosing your cupcakes' style, colour and flavour is all part of the cupcake fun; but don't forget you can also have fun choosing a beautiful cupcake stand. A traditional round cupcake stand may be perfect for your classy wedding, or you may prefer a more modern and contemporary square cupcake stand. A Perspex cupcake stand will ensure your guests are not distracted from the beauty of your cupcakes, but a pink, patterned cupcake stand is perfect for a girly party, adding that extra touch of glamour and glitz.
