

Article Side

Earn money from home with B2B marketing portal by Uncleservice

Article published on April 14th 2012 | Business

What is B2B marketing?

B2B marketing is one of the four business models. B2B marketing refers to the business to business deal and transaction. B2B marketing is an emerging field on the internet now days because its importance and use is indeed beneficial to every business. In a B2B marketing portal, various advertising options are available for business owners to promote business from free to premium listings. Service Uncle is online marketing portal from Australia and now it starts its business in India to help the service providers in India. In India, Service Uncle offers free advertising for small to medium sized businesses but it is constraints to the limited features. In the premium listings service uncle offer some special features, which increase the chances of business leads.

How can earn money from home?

Service Uncle, not only providing the free listing to business owners but also offer an online partnership program for students, housewives, working professionals, retired professionals and part time workers. This partnership program is very flexible and comfortable. As you join the service uncle as a business partner, you can work in full time as well as part time according to your convince. If you have marketing skills and zeal to sale products, this is for you only. You can join the service uncle after paying a nominal fee.

3 Types of business partnerships are available; business associate, sales associate and booking agent. In business associate program earning is higher than sales associate and booking agent but you can join business associate with a nominal fee. Sales associate is also a partnership program in which you can earn high commission greater than a booking agent. If you join booking agent program with service uncle, you will earn a certain commission on each sale made by you and it's free to join or in other words no registration fee is required to become a booking agent. You can join the partnership program from anywhere in India.

Why Service Uncle?

Service Uncle is world's first online b2b marketing portal for service providers only. As a service provider join service uncle it's not only visible in India but also in worldwide. Service Uncle covers almost all the service industries in world. It helps most to the small to middle size businesses into their business promotion by which a customer can find them easily. Service Uncle also launched it's helpline for the customers in India to find a service provider detail over the phone by SMS if he is offline.

Now it is great to earn money online from home with service uncle's partnership program. Service Uncle is a b2b marketing portal in India for service providers.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/earn-money-from-home-with-b2b-marketing-portal.htm> - Article Side

Uncleservice - About Author:

Now it is great to a earn money online from home with service uncleâ€™s partnership program. Service Uncle is a a b2b marketing portal in India for service providers.

Article Keywords:

business directory, Importers directory, exporters directory, transporters directory, business brokers directory, transporters directory

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!