Why is cheap toner a priority for so many companies?

For any individual or company that does a lot of printing knows, finding good cheap toner is essential in keeping your costs down. The printer companies purposefully sell their printing machines cheaply because they know how much money they are going to make on toner cartridges. The cost of the cartridges can often outweigh the cost of the machines themselves. There are companies that can top up your cartridges for you, but this is often not a very effective way of finding cheap toner as they often are either sub standard or simply do not work at all. It is for this reason that you need to find a good regular supplier for all of your cheap toner.

How can suppliers find cheap toner for you that are of a suitable quality?

Firstly, any company that sells cheap toner will usually specialise in selling toner cartridges and other printing machine supplies and nothing else. Because they buy in such bulk, they are able to get good prices which they then pass on to their customers. They should also be able to sell you cheap toner that is none branded. In other words, you will get the same quality of ink, but you won't be paying the inflated prices that the major brands charge for their products.

Where is a good company to go to for cheap toner?

There are several good companies around for cheap toner, but it really does pay to shop around as quality and prices can vary greatly. Also, you will probably go to a company where you order online and you want to make sure that they have a good customer service and delivery times. One company that does spring to mind is called Tonerexpress.co.uk. They have a wide range of cheap toners as well as other printer products that should cater for most companies. In terms of value for money, range and quality of products and customer service, they are very hard to beat. If you are looking for cheap toner, they should be the first place that you try.
