Herbal/Traditional Products in New Zealand by Bharatbook

Article published on April 19th 2012 | Business

In April 2009, two political parties (the National Party and the Green Party) announced their intention to work together to develop a New Zealand-based regulatory system for natural health products sold in New Zealand. In March 2010, the Ministry of Health made available a consultation paper on the development of the proposed Natural Health Products Bill with public submissions closing in May 2010. Key elements of the proposed scheme include: product approval (based on notification of products...
