India has incredible mythological stories, events and traditions, followed and respected across the globe. The country has diversities in season, religion, history, food, clothing, culture, regions, etc. Thus, as a tourist, people belonging from all mindsets, different attitudes, professions, age groups and likeness will find their all needs served in the place. Deciding, the country as the touristsâ€™™ destination spot for your holidays will offer all that you expect in holiday vacation.

Describing all destination spots in the country at one go will take longer time. So, to be precise, let us take the most desirable feeling expected by the tourists for adventure holidays in India. Every tourist expects to get adventure, thrill, and extreme excitement from the holiday vacation. To fulfill the wish, adventure tour operators are the agencies, which help in making the vacation complete.

Currently, river rafting trip at Rishikesh and white water rafting at Zanskar are the packages that equip the tourists with extreme adventure and fun. Visiting both or one of the place as per holiday plan will provide an outstanding outdoor experience with white water rafting, camp games, solitude, campfire tales, and delicious food.

Zanskar is surrounded by mountains and provide extreme adventure that require skilled river-rafters, whereas, Rishikesh welcomes everyone in the family with moderated river current. Moreover, Rishikesh is the land of saints and mythological stories. Tourists interested in spirituality can learn about vast cultural heritage, view temples and can experience the spiritual feeling that exists in its environment. However, adventure seekers can view riverside forest, sandy river beach, deep valley and unstable river currents.

In comparison to Rishikesh, Zanskar trip offers known glaciers, extreme cold, snow leopards, ibex, black wolves and rare Himalayan blue poppy. The valley with no entrance is located at an average altitude of over 13,000 ft remains close for eight months in a year. It opens for trekking and rafting during summers, making the trip extreme adventurous and exciting.

Thus, the fun does not end here. At north, The Great Himalayas have thrilling and adventurous rafting, trekking and fun to offer, at south, tourists can enjoy the wide and wild vegetations, whereas, western part offers great monuments, forts and religious diversity. Similarly, eastern part offers quite mix of everything along with peaceful holidays. The specialist tour operators providing adventure holidays in India have all packages to make holidays memorable and exciting. So, decide the suitable package at affordable prices along with best customer services.
