Article published on June 7th 2012 | Business

The best looking and the most difficult game find online in last so many years is Bubble trouble. It's the best game among the various competitive site like Pogo and King. It is the game liked by thousands of players. The game has gained so much popularity because it give a chance to think and to react at the same time as you have to shoot the bubbles from the bottom in an effective speed by rotating the icon here and there in order to make more scores. Moreover, you also need to avoid the pointed balls and to be on the safer side and to move back towards the floor.

The speed of these spiked balls is very high, if you want to survive in the game to play the all levels you need to make strategies before proceeding.

On the other hand, the best and effective strategy to use throughout the bubble trouble is to move in the reverse direction from the spiked balls whenever possible. It means that you have to gather the balls of green color from the one end of the screen and to save yourself from the spikes which generally lie on the opposite side of that. Either made a strategy to move your cursor with the movement of the balls. But it is also true that with this strategy you will not able to save yourself throughout the game but it is useful for many of the other players as they easily maintain the longevity in the game.

Always maintain your cursor near to the Bob because it will ensure you that you will perfectly have a control on your cursor to shoot the bubbles so as to avoid the spiked balls. On the other hand, if you keep your cursor far away then it will be difficult for you to move because the spikes will target you in seconds. In order to save from the spikes you need to move left right up and down and this procedure will only increase your scores.

Also, in the game power booster energy will also be provided to you after achieving the certain score. Once you reached to that positive energies you will got the power to shrink yourself or to shrink the spikes for certain period of time and to slow them for a while. On the other hand, if the spike will suck you, you will fall down to the place from where you have started.

If you are playing bubble trouble you need to be a best bubble shooter player.
