We believe that your home should be your solace and a place where you can relax and de-stress where you can feel comfortable, safe and secure. At Unique Gifts and Interiors Ltd we understand how important the home is and endeavour to help you achieve the best from it. In our shops and our online catalogue we have many little treasures, from ornaments and soft furnishings to curtains and designer sofas, and many more to suit everyone's budgets and personal tastes.

Unique Gifts and Interiors are a relatively small, totally independent business who offer that all important personal service and passion for their work. We are based in West Norfolk with five separate showrooms, each showcasing our work; these are spread over the local area. We have been front runners in our business for many years, understanding that customer service is a major factor has been paramount to our success. We only stock great quality goods, which as well as looking great are really well made, with a designer feel at very competitive prices.

Our selection of designer sofas is wide and varied. We are positive there is something for everyone and with the help of our interior design service these will compliment any room, and ensure your home stands apart from the rest.

The interior design service is made up of a team of designers who have accumulated over 30 years of experience and have a passion and flair that is second to none. All of our customers are offered this service, whether it is for advice or to take charge and over haul a complete room or house for you. Very often we have ideas for our room; with the interior design service we will make these dreams a reality!
