The automobile industry in Kerala is shaping up well since the last few years. Inflation did not affect the sale of cars as a great deal of business was done in the second hand car market. Considering the rise in sales of second hand cars in Kerala, the dealers started their separate centers for buying/selling them. Car dealers play their part by assisting Keralites in buying a suitable car. For the budget conscious, investing in second hand cars has been a smart option. The second hand car market did good business last year and it is expected to rise in the years to come.

The market demand for cars in Kerala

When you live in a state like Kerala which has a hilly terrain, you will surely need a vehicle to travel. With the second hand car market booming in India, car dealers in Kerala have seen a great opportunity in growth. From sleekly designed small cars to luxury cars, all models are available for sale with car dealers. With never-before features, latest technology and classy looks, new car models are being introduced by the car manufacturers every month. As per reports from car dealers, manufacturers and auto financiers, the demand for used cars in Kerala is shifting from small cars to middle-size sedans.

Some of the popular car brands which did big business last year include Maruti, Hyundai, Mahindra, Tata and Honda... Many tourists have started investing in second hand cars to fulfill their temporary travel needs while exploring the wonders of Kerala

The checklist to be followed before buying a used car

The sale of used cars in Kerala went up in 2011 and the graph is expected to display an uptrend in the coming years. Thanks to the support offered by the car dealers in Kerala, buyers are able to make a right choice while buying a car to suit their travel needs.

The car agents assist you in knowing all about the car that you need to know before purchasing it. Used car dealers help you to

- Check the mileage

- Get a test drive

- Check the accident history

- Check the status of the engine

- Get certified cars

Travelers might want to buy a car on rental basis for their long vacation and travel to all the popular tourist destinations. Residents of Kerala might want to buy a second hand car to fulfill their dreams of owning a four-wheeler. No matter whether you are a resident of Kerala, or a traveler, when you want to buy a used car at affordable rates, joining hands with a certified used car seller is a clever choice.
