Article published on June 16th 2012 | Business

Zara's Planet was conceived through the love of adventurous travel and beauty of horses which is at the core of our philosophy. Indeed, we have crossed the planet to gather the finest calibre horses for our horse riding holidays. Our horse riding holidays offer you an experience that will surpass even your wildest expectations.

Here at Zara's Planet we are fully bonded and licensed by the Commission for Aviation. Our horse riding holidays caters for couples and families with children of all ages. We pride ourselves on the personalised service that we can offer, and it is this dedication to providing horse riding holidays of such calibre that has allowed us to grow to become a tour operator of significant expertise and acumen.

The horse riding holidays that we offer takes you to all corners of the globe. From north and south America, to Africa and Europe our horse riding holidays traverse great plains, deserts and scenic countryside. Whether you're a novice or experience equestrian you can rest assured that these horse riding holidays offer you a once in a lifetime experience.

Here at Zara's Planet we have a total of thirty three destination choices across the globe for families to enjoy. From Argentina to Spain, Ireland to Italy our horse riding holidays are as diverse as they are fulfilling. The fantastic Italian excursions that we offer combine riding through the beautiful Tuscan village with classical dressage training that is not too be missed. When you consider that these Italian horse riding holidays also allow you the opportunity to sample some of the best cuisine on the continent then just how could you resist!

If you'd like to discover for yourself just why our vacations are so sought-after, or indeed make an enquiry yourself then you need to just come and visit us online at: www.zarasplanet.co.uk.
