For a man to look his best, he needs to wear the right kind of clothes. If his outfit is too loose or too tight, it can ruin his entire image. Similarly, the wrong style can be equally damaging. To find the right mens shirts London is the ideal place to shop. Emmett London has been serving the men's community since 2006, steadily earning a reputation for stellar menswear and accessories.

For dress shirts Jermyn Street has been the one-stop-shopping district most British men rely on for quality single cuff shirts as well as numerous other styles and hot trends.

Single Cuff Shirts

Always classic, single cuff shirts are one of the trendiest mens shirts London has to offer. Single cuff shirts fasten with a simple, single button making them easy to wear with no need for a cufflink.

Emmett London's single cuff shirts come in a variety of different colours and styles to meet your personal preferences. As the most formal style, single cuff shirts are often best worn with formal eveningwear.

Slim Fit Shirts

Another popular style of dress shirts Jermyn Street features are slim fit shirts. Available in a wide variety of colours and cuff styles, slim fitting shirts are a fashionable trend that can be tailor made to your specifications. Slim fit shirts fit closely to your body but still give you plenty of room to move around freely.

Slim fit men's dress shirts are popular because men enjoy feeling confident with this flattering look. Emmett London is proud to offer different slim fit styles that will suit your body type and leave you looking smart and sophisticated.

Men who know how to wear shirts properly and how to blend colours can make a significant image for themselves. According to a leading men's magazine, men should not be afraid to try new fabrics, colours and styles. Men who experiment with different looks will find out what suits them best so they always present the most stylish image.

Finding the right dress shirt is effortless thanks to the variety of styles offered at Emmett London on Jermyn Street.
