Why buy wireless phone if you have a cell phone by John Peterson

Article published on May 26th 2012 | Communication

Many people believe that the mobile phone is the best way to communicate with others. Also, if you talk a lot or use the phone much more expensive way. The mobile phone bill every month, the price is horrible if you use it all the time. Cordless Phone is a small price and use it for a monthly fee of less than a mobile phone. If you do not want a lot of calls, then the mobile phone can be for you.

Many people have spent about 4 hours a day using their phones. It is approximately 120 hours of talk time to be on your cell phone. This is about 43.00 a month, one member of your household. For the average family of four that can run into $ 160 per month, and some are expensive.

Having a wireless phone at home, there will be additional handsets to remove and reduce the monthly payments down to cell 1 or 2, which can be as low as $ 40 per month depending on the minutes you use it. Cordless phone at home will cost each month about $ 35.00. Now we are looking for $ 75 instead of $ 160 a month by month. It would be a big savings.

Not only are savings cordless phone is a way to be sure that your teenagers are not going through the cell phone service plan limits and keep them at home to do your talking. The convenience of cordless phone, you can walk and talk at the same time in your home. Of course, you can not go to the grocery store, but if you need to make an urgent call from the store, you can use basic mobile phone to make calls.

We hooked up on our new gadgets and want to have it all, now also a mobile phone, Internet access and text messaging, where we are, we can not stop people personally. Now, with the cordless phone at home you can relax and talk with friends and family without the worry over the threshold, or the lack of a call because your phone was turned off.

Most doctor's offices and public places like libraries, they are required to switch off your mobile phone to worry about all around. You can not use a cell phone, so it is turned off and sent to voice mail. Just use your cordless home phone number and voice mail to answer your phone call, and to get your messages.

Mobile phone is nice because you can use it for your home and it is a laptop, but using a wireless phone at home is the same as using your mobile. Some mobile phones can not work in certain buildings. Just as Home Depot, Walmart, some mobile phones do not work when the home signal will be produced spotty, so using a wireless phone, there will be a much better solution.

By price range of mobile phones and change, it is necessary to have a home phone and using a cordless best of both worlds. Mobile phones technology advances, and soon they will connect their mobile phone so that you can use your home on your cell phone. We hope that the use of mobile phone price will drop dramatically for us to use them together
