David Weremay "the Shining Star of the World of Voice" by Colbert Raynard

Article published on May 7th 2012 | Customer Service

Entertaining people is one of the most difficult tasks. Everyone isn't able to make someone happy with their wit or talent. It is a precious quality to be able to entertain the whole world with some kind of talent. There are many ways to entertain people like some recite jokes, some write inspirational poems, some depict their ideas through acts.

Among all these, voice is one of the best ways of communicating any ideas, feelings, message etc. Many singers enthrall their audience with the magic of their voice. Music can be enjoyed in any gathering or alone. David Weremay is one of the popular voices who has been singing a wide range of songs in his life.

Belonging to a well-off family, David Weremay lived his life to convert his dreams to reality. His father, a leading businessman in California, always wanted to make his son a top businessman in the business world. But David didn't have any interest in his father's business. From his childhood, he had the only aim of becoming a singer. He felt very comfortable and happy while singing. His father did not approve of this and never helped him or encouraged him. During his college days, he participated in many singing events. After hearing his voice everyone appreciated his talent. David Weremay's teacher Logan Wang guided him to take tuitions under a professional singer to develop the talent in a right way.

After completing his graduation, David Weremay went to Phoenix for his singing practice where he was taught by some of the best professionals. This was the first step to fulfill his dream and after that he never looked back. After two years of practice, Logan Jade Wang, a known music director, gave him a chance of singing in his album. This album became very popular across the United States. After that, he released ten albums one after the other. Till date, he has released about eighteen albums.
