Bangkok, an electric mix of contradictions, is a tourist hot spot both figuratively and literally. It's a city full of energy and beauty. Opulent in sights and sounds, interesting by history and cultures, and progressive in elegance and modernity, Bangkok is today unlike any time ever. The Thai capital is acknowledged as "One of the World's Best Cities" by the voting of scholars of Travel and Leisure. It can feel overwhelming at times indeed.

Over the years, Bangkok has seen a massive progress in all directions, extending beyond the horizon. Once a small farming and trading community, the city is now filled with towering skyscrapers, mega shopping arcades, elevated expressways and world-class hotels. Apart from that, the presence of countless food stalls, capacious markets and vibrant nightlife options draws the tourists in hordes. The city has hundreds of gleaming temples, Buddha ruins and cultural centers, which reflect it still holds its ancient charms. Wandering the historical Chao Phraya River that is lined with ancient temples give the visitors a feel of historical Thailand empowered with astounding Buddha spirituality. In this way, the city is a perfect mix of past and present that constantly surprises its visitors.

Being an ideal escape for visitors of all natures, Bangkok is thronged by millions of tourists annually. And luckily, hotels in Bangkok do wonderfully cater these tourists, allowing them to enjoy the madness of city with a little easier. They are outstanding both in term of amenities and customer service. With all contemporary ambiances, amazing Thai hospitality and detectable dining & wining, they make Bangkok travelers undergo all its delights on daily basis. Transportation arrangements in the city are also satisfied. Once infamous for its notorious traffic, Bangkok today boasts well-managed transportation with several transport facilities available for road riders. One can use excellent bus network of Bangkok to easily get around the city or can hire a private taxi service to have an enjoyable and private riding experience in Bangkok. As the city is major tourist spot of Thailand, occupancy rate of travel facilities like flights, hotels and transportation etc is very high. It's therefore advised that one should reserve his required facilities well in advance.

Nowadays, there are many companies that guide visitors to get their best deals for Bangkok tour. One can find his suited Thailand package or a Bangkok tour package searching over internet. It just needs to visit some travel portals to find these deals available in varied price range. Considering the requirements and budget, one can select his suitable Bangkok tour package. However, it's always recommended that one should reserve his deals through a reputable travel portal. A Bangkok tour package usually includes the travel facilities like accommodation and meals, and ensures a fun-filled holiday in Bangkok, while a complete Thailand package allows the visitors explore various enchanting things including travel in Pattaya.
