

Article Side

Budget hotels in Chennai by Veronika Smith

Article published on August 4th 2012 | Destinations

Chennai is located in the southernmost region of India. It is the capital of Tamil Nadu, the southernmost state of India. The city is located in the Coromandel Coast and is known for the educational institutes (high literacy), rich heritage, culture which prevails in the heart of the state and also the city. The city is fourth most populous city in the country and is also famous for the presence of huge industrial base in the city.

Situated near to coastal areas and the ocean, Chennai has some of the finest beaches which attracts a lot of tourists every year and thus is among the top tourist destination in India. Apart from beaches, the city is also known for the Ayurvedic medicine. The city is a must see for any people owing to its rich cultural heritage, ancient links to religion, and many more which attracts thousands and thousands of tourists every month from all over the world. The city also has a rich quality of flora and fauna including some of the rare species as well which is not found anywhere across the country. Budget hotels in Chennai are one of the most important businesses owing to the huge tourist density. Also being the centre for many industries, the city sees huge no. of professionals every year for the business purposes.

People are learned and well educated and thus are very friendly and supportive. The budget hotel in Chennai have well educated and properly groomed staffs that are very supportive and are available always at your service to take care about your needs and requirements. The hotels ensure that you have an easy and hassle free stay in the place. The hotel staffs ensure that they take care of all your requirements and you are never deprived of any facility. The Budget hotels in Chennai are available in different fashion to suit your requirement. Starting from single room to executive club class suites are available. The hotel rooms are equipped with all the basic materials like linen, towel, room freshener, toiletries, etc. The rooms are also supplied with services like 24 hours hot and cold water facility, electricity and generator backup. Some of the other services include telephone service, 24 hour cable TV service, and laundry service. Option of room service and food delivery in the room is also available upon request. The Budget hotels in Chennai also get you any kind of emergency medical facility or cab service required.

In a nutshell we can conclude that the Budget hotels in Chennai are the best place to stay in Chennai, where you get highly professional service as you have the some of the best hotel staffs who are very educated and highly groomed.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/budget-hotels-in-chennai.htm> - Article Side

Veronika Smith - About Author:

Travel Accurate is presenting a unique traveller's desired portal which offers you lists of hotels, venues and tour packages so that you can select best and luxurious one and you can also negotiate for the hotel you want to book to save your valuable money.

a Hotel in Mysore

a Hotel in Chennai

a Hotel in Amritsar

Article Keywords:
budget hotels in Chennai, hotel in Chennai

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!