

Article Side

Delhi Has Developed New and Novel Spots of Tourism Which Earlier Generation Has Not Witnessed by Adolf Jamie

Article published on March 21st 2012 | Destinations

Delhi is India's Capital city and it had always been a historical capital city at different periods, particularly Mughal kingdoms operating their affairs with Delhi as their Headquarters, leaving a number of monuments acquiring historical importance.

Delhi city by itself makes the visitor to tour the whole day just for having a glimpse of ancient monuments and the places to visit in Delhi include some of the awe inspiring spots recently developed by Delhi Tourism Corporation mainly to enthuse visitors to Delhi, which spots include

• Swaminarayan Akshardham , with high domes and awe inspiring statues of deities, in a single complex having three exhibition halls around two mammoth pond, which are referred as Sahajanand Darshan, Neelkanth Darshan and Sanskruti Vihar, the tour of which spot includes a memorable boat ride experience which offers information on India's glorious heritage events.

• Azad Hind Gram, newly developed Delhi tourism complex at Tikri Kalan in Delhi Haryana border, to honor Nehtaji Subhas Chandra Bose, which has with it an amphitheater, shopping arcades, food kiosks, convention facilities and all modern amenities that a tourist complex would need

• Bahai Temple, a structure constructed in the shape of Lotus flower, representing Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism and Islam giving scope for members of all faiths to visit and observe meditation in the vast meditation hall with beautiful architecture around, maintaining serenity, which is one of the seven such temples in the world.

• Dilli Haat, a modern village created by Delhi tourism, in which thousands of artisans from all over the country take stalls and work on their craftsmanship, selling the arts and crafts material in fair and deserving prices, at the same time the touring visitors can have delicious food varieties from any part of the country, all available here for the visitors to devour.

• Garden of Five Senses, a project developed by Delhi Tourism Corporation to facilitate free interaction of public, developed in a spectacular fashion in an area of twenty acre space, where wonderful pieces of modern architecture and sculpture art are exhibited, with serene and admirable walkway for public to walk and enjoy, amidst natural surroundings of flower plants and birds flying all around.

Travel agencies organize conducted Delhi tours, which are designed for sight seeing and entertainment, and also for various Delhi tours to visit destinations such as Agra, Jaipur, Chandigarh, Amritsar, Haridwar, Manali, Simla and many other important places around, and all these packages of Delhi tourism can easily be booked online in the Travel Agents' Web portals.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/delhi-has-developed-new-and-novel-spots-of-tourism-which-earlier-generation-has-not-witnessed.htm> - Article Side

Adolf Jamie - About Author:

a Delhi Tour - Get discounted deals available on India New Delhi Tour Packages at MakeMyTrip. Enjoy New Delhi Tours, vacation Tours New Delhi, New Delhi Tourism at lowest prices. Also check our other theme destination packages.

Article Keywords:
Delhi Tourism, Delhi Tour

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!