If you are done with visiting the golden carvings of the Grand Palace, bustling crowds of Floating Market, jaw-dropping excitement of Thai boxing and vibrant ambience at Chinatown in Bangkok then turn your attention to the below given attractions to experience unusual facet of the city.

Forensic Museum

Forensic Museum is a gem that most of the travellers booking air tickets to Bangkok miss to spot. Located on the grounds of Siriraj Hospital, Forensic Museum features a large collection of bones, corpses and photographs that thrill the mind and create goose bums! The most popular attraction of Forensic Museum is the corpse of Thailand's serial killer, Si Quei that fascinates the heart of every macabre lover booking airline tickets to Bangkok.

Royal Dragon

Travellers who wish to experience grand dining in Bangkok must visit the Royal Dragon Restaurant. Royal Dragon has been recorded as world's biggest restaurant by the Guinness Book of Records in 1992 and is a must-visit attraction for those booking air tickets to Bangkok. Spread over an area of 8 acres, the restaurant can accommodate up to 5,000 customers at a time and is famous for serving delicious local and international cuisines.

Tuptim Shrine

Not-so-politically-correct attraction of the city, Tuptim Shrine is surely a captivating lure for at least certain segment of travellers booking tickets to Bangkok. The shrine is devoted to a female fertility spirit, Chao Mae Tuptim and features over hundred sculptures of phalluses. Some of the Thais believe that it is a shrine of good luck whereas others consider it as unholy. Though the true origin of the shrine is still a mystery, yet travellers booking cheap flights tickets to Bangkok can pay a visit to this place.

Amulet Markets

For bagging some good luck charms, Amulet Markets of Bangkok are the best spots to visit. The markets feature hundreds of vendors exhibiting tiny Buddha amulets, which are believed to be blessed with special powers that fulfil all the desires and wishes. The Amulet market around Wat Mahatat is the most popular market out of all and stays bustling with travellers and locals all day long.

Sirocco Roof Bar

Bangkok is a beautiful city and witnessing its splendour and glamour from a bird's eye view is as delightful as anything. Situated on the sixty-third floor of Bangkok's second tallest building, Sirocco Roof Bar is the most beautiful spot to relish the 'aereal Bangkok'. The travellers booking cheap airline tickets to Bangkok love to visit this haven from where they can enjoy blissful sights of saffron sun gulped by the dark horizon at dusk. The restaurant makes the visitors feel 'eat the top of the world' and enriches their pleasure by serving delicious cuisines cooked by most proficient chefs of Bangkok.
