Singapore is a plush yet naturally opulent country perched up as a shining pearl over the dewy oceans. Under tour package for Singapore, you can have a whale of a time as you stroll into this captivating place that conjures up rapturous beaches in all its pristine form and the blitzky markets in all its grandiloquence. Being situated in the eastern part of the world (in east Asia), it does score on the cultural count. People from the west find it irresistible to explore the charming unique culture of this side of the globe; something that comes undeniably with a holiday in Singapore.

Singapore is an ideal blend of natural wonders and luxurious, metropolitan life. On one hand, you have those mesmerizing beaches and on the other hand you get those posh and gigantic malls. Singapore holiday opens up the gates to a world of exotic beaches which offer both serenity as well as bashful opportunities. There are scores of beaches in the country which allow you to party deep into the nights under the silvery moon and beside the glowing sea. Merry-making, drinks and sports are obvious attractions for a young enthusiast while someone looking for spiritual bliss can walk on the sandy beaches, feel the breeze on his face and get forlorn in the quaintness of the place. Alongside, you get sumptuous breakfast, lunch and dinner under the tour package for Singapore.

Tour package for Singapore also takes you into some brilliantly scenic places like the noted Sentosa Island. It houses the famous Statue of Merlion which is splashed all over the country's tourism posters. It is also noted for its museums that house many historical artifacts which are alluring to lovers of art and history. And then there are those frolicsome beaches which are as spectacular as paradise can be.

Going for a holiday in Singapore can be really fun if you can splurge a bit on clothes, accessories and what not! Orchard Street, Little India and China Town act like a magnet to the shopaholics who find themselves getting lost in a sensuous world of shops and stalls! There are these giant malls that epitomize the ultramodern life we are leading. And then there are those simpler, more sedate items that can be picked at throwaway price. And for your tired limbs, there are innumerable food courts and cafeterias everywhere. They promise to whet your appetite and please your bellies.

Wildlife, adventure sports, the jungles, waterfalls, sight-seeing spots and luxurious parlors are other major attractions of a Singapore holiday.
