Travelers from all around the world hear about the captivating beauty of this place and take a Kerala holiday to experience the bewitching charms of this little, exquisite world. Of course, not going to Kerala will be something more than just a crime & sin.

Kerala, the land of lagoons & backwaters, is a mesmerizing place perched beside the serene Indian Oceans in the southern corner of India. It is a land of tradition with the popular Kerala dance & elephant rides an essential ingredient of its culture. No man on the planet can resist the natural attractions of a Kerala tour with the flowing streams, the alluring rivulets and the exotic seas conjuring up a dreamland for you & your loved one. Though, a Kerala holiday is enticing for every living soul, its super romantic aura makes it a dreamland for the honeymooners. The exploration, the sightseeing and the houseboat rides will fulfill all your dreams and enable you to walk into a chapter from the fairy tales.

If, as a child, your imagination has been caught by the splendidly charming fairy tales, then Kerala tours is your chance to feel it in real life. The backwaters, rivers, lakes, lagoons, streams and ravines make this place a wet, green and breezy one. Unlike the cacophonous metropolitan cities, Kerala is a serene, verdant state that is open & expansive. You cannot escape the feeling of the old world charm that's so effortlessly present all over. While your eyeballs will pop out on the picturesque delights on sight, your heart will be tugged by a strong surge of nostalgia.

Kerala tour also introduces you to bustling local streets and markets. On one hand, there are the busy markets; on the other hand, there are the historical museums & churches. The lanes & by-lanes dotted with backwaters and overlooking the mighty hills can be soothing to the senses. Your holiday in Kerala will also comprise of riding on elephants (the giant tuskers) and on experiencing the soulful massage services in the exotic spas and Ayurvedic centers. The houseboats that will take you to the middle of those beguiling backwaters are other attractive charms of the place.

Kerala's wildlife is also unique and rich. There are some really interesting forest reserves and wildlife sanctuaries that are must-visits for every nature lover, amateur photographers, young enthusiasts, animal lovers and bird gazers. Then there is the famous Munnar hill station that is a honeymooner's paradise. Kerala tours also feature exotic stays in superb hotels, great food in lavish restaurants and exploring the inner pockets of the beautiful state.
