People taking trip from place to place will decide to go for cheap hotels to reduce the expenses. Even it is official tour or personal tour, in order to do cost cutting they prefer low cost hotels. It is a normal phenomenon for all class of peoples and the highlight is that these hotels should have the basic facilities to withstand the expectations of its customers. These cheap hotels are mostly preferred by the students who are about to stay away from home town for project work or education purposes or for studies.

Some of the cheap hotels provide many services to draw the customers. In addition, they are improving themselves in all aspects like quality, service, catering and etc. In general from the people's point of view the low cost hotels would not have the necessary things to serve the customers. Well, it is the common wrong point of view from the people side. Nowadays the cheap hotels are developing little by little and trying to improve its status and shows more interest in building its reputation. It introduces cab services for the customers, pickup and drop services for the tourist from nearby railway station or airport.

Pretending the high class hotels, the cheap hotels provide rooms on basis of classes such as deluxe class, standard class and economic class. On the other hand they can provide different varieties of food item. These low cost hotels are exist from north to south of India to serve the needed ones. Economic classes are the people who getting more and more benefits from the hotels like this. To improve the eminence of the hotels they bring in pickup and drop services, multi cuisine restaurants, free car parking service and etc.

Most of the cheap hotels introduce online reservation of the rooms and cab service as well. The customers can book their hotel rooms through official websites provided by the hotels. The customers can pay for it through wired system with the help of net banking or VISA or MasterCard. In future if the customers want to cancel the reservation, just contact the authorized person to cancel the reservation. This should be done prior a week not at the last time. The cancellation process will take a small charge as service charge for processing the request as well. As soon as possible the cancellation can be done through online method and they are working for it.
