Kerala is a beautiful state of India blessed with astounding natural beauty, amiable cool climate and diverse traditions & cultures. It's located on the southwestern tip of India, and is an ideal escape for the travelers of all ages and profiles. Marvelous landscapes, splendid sea-shores, towering palm trees and scenic waterways, Kerala has a unique fascination that never fails to engrain the hearts and minds of tourists. Besides this, traditional massage and Ayurvedic treatments also refresh the mind, body and soul of the people who come to enjoy holiday in Kerala. Here are some popular holiday spots in Kerala.

Munnar

Located on the Western Ghats in Idukki district, Munnar is a popular hill station of Kerala. This amazingly beautiful place is surrounded by majestic hills, tea plantations, immaculate valleys and lush green forests, and renders an enigmatic charm to leave the visitors spellbound. Apart from this picturesque hill station, there are many travel sites such as Echo Point, Anaimudi, Pothamedu and Eravikulam National Park, which are worth visiting. Munnar has always been a premium destination for the travelers who plan honeymoon in Kerala.

Thekkady

Located in proximity to Kerala-Tamil Nadu border, Thekkady is a must-to-visit destination for wildlife lovers. This place is home to the world famous wildlife center – Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary, where tourists can discover several species of wild animals along with rich flora and fauna. This monster animal refuge is stretched virtually 777 sq km, and gives the visitors panoramic views of lakes and green landscapes. Apart from that, visitors can go to the Thekkady and Chellar Kovil to see some beautiful waterfalls and cascades.

Alleppey

One of the largest cities in Kerala, Alleppey is nestled in Alappuzha district and is fondly referred as the "Venice of the East". A town of picturesque waterways and splendid coral beaches, Alleppey is a popular tourist spot in Kerala. This town is the source to access Nehru Trophy Boat Race, the most competitive boat race in India, that takes place on the second Saturday of August every year. Moreover, stunning views of Arabian Sea, Ambalappuzha Shri Krishna Temple and Edathua Church are additional incentives for the tourists who are on holiday in Kerala.

Vagamon

This beautiful hill station is located in Idukki district, and known to be a popular tourist spot in Kerala. This place has a god-gifted bounty with three majestic hills named Thangal, Murugan and Kurisumala, and renders astounding charm that is worth experiencing. Other than the beauty of these green hills, there are many religious centers and rich history & cultures to explore.

When planning for Kerala holiday tour, or a special trip of Kerala honeymoon, the most suitable option is to opt for Kerala holiday packages. Several companies provide Kerala honeymoon packages to make the travelers enjoying convenience and comfort during their mesmerizing holiday in Kerala. Searching through Internet, one can find a deal for Kerala tour to perfectly match your buying criteria. However, make it sure you buy Kerala tour package from a reputable travel agent.
