

Article Side

Start North India Tours with Prime Destination by Nikita Martin

Article published on July 12th 2012 | Destinations

Tourism is one the most popular leisure activity across the globe. People use to travel out of their usual living place for leisure and recreational purposes. Tourism Industry is one the most growing industry in India. It is one the largest service sector of India. India is blessed with so many tourist destinations; one can find so many tourist destinations in India. India is a country rich in culture and historical heritage. The country is geographically diverse also. The northern part of country has some very picturesque places. North India is rich in natural beauty; it is also having some world famous tourist destination.

Taj Mahal is one the Seven Wonders of the World and it is an international heritage. Built by Shahjahan in the fond memory of his beloved wife Mumtaaj Taj Mahal is also known as monument of love. Made by the white marble Taj Mahal is often called whit beauty. Your visit to India is incomplete without your visit to Taj Mahal. Taj Mahal is one the most visited tourist destinations in India; hence, there are various Taj Mahal Tour packages are offered by tour and travel designers.

North India has number of hill stations, following are some the popular hill stations such like Gulmarg, Ranikhet, Dalhousie, Shrinagar, Pehlgam etc attract visitors from all over the world. All above mentioned top hill station are having picturesque natural beauty and express hilarious view of snow covered top mountains of India. Mussorie is known as the queen of hills, Naintal is having Naini Lake as main attraction and these hill stations are also known for their hospitality.

The famous hills of Himalayas also fall in North India; these are also known for adventure sports activity apart from having beautiful locations. Some the destinations are Leh, Ladakh, and Auli. Ladakh is one of the most preferred places for trekking, Auli is known for winter sports this place is known for adventure sports activity like Skiing, mountain climbing and also offer wonderful other sport game.

Apart from this there is Jim Corbett National Park for wild life lovers. North India is full of travel destination; your North India Travel gives so many travel destination options to choose from. This tourist destination and the beauty of North India will definitely leave a mark on your memory.

The other important thing about north India is that it has some very important religious tourist destination. India is one the most visited country for pilgrimage tourism. India is well known for its religious places, and northern part of the county is having some very re known religious tourist destination. On North India Tours you can visit the following pilgrimage places like Haridwar, Kedarnath, Varanasi, Chardham, Pushkar, Ajmer, Badrinath, Kedarnath etc. The revered Amarnath Yatra, Gloden Temple of Amritsar and the famous Dargah of Ajmer Sharif, and Haridwar with holy Ganga River are the prime feature of the religious tourist destination of North India. Rishikesh is known for both its religious purpose and for adventure sports like river rafting.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/start-north-india-tours-with-prime-destination.htm> - Article Side

Nikita Martin - About Author:

Nikita martin expresses her views about a India Tours, a North India Tours and a North India Travel with these articles, read and gives feedback about these articles.

Article Keywords:

India Tours, North India Tours, North India Travel

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!