

Article published on April 5th 2012 | Destinations

Bangkok is the hotspot of Thailand and the centre for all major tourism activities. The famous statue of Golden Buddha and the reclining Buddha statues that are present in Bangkok symbolize peace and tranquility in the world, which is also the ambiance that is spread all over the city. Other than shopping destinations, Bangkok packages offer a whole lot more. They give you an opportunity to explore the night life and club life of Bangkok. There are also family entertainment spots like the Dusit zoo and some animal safaris for kids. There are great deals available online for Bangkok packages. So, you can check them out before planning your trip.

While on a tour to Pattaya, you must make sure that include some major attractions that can make your trip memorable for life. A trip to Pattaya will give you a chance to explore the diverse lifestyle and culture of Thailand. There are a lot of islands in and around Pattaya that are worth visiting for their amazingly calm and fine beaches. The scenery around the islands can leave you astonished. You can go sailing on the coral island beach tour which is about 45 minutes boat ride from main Pattaya city. This island, also known as Koh Larn, was earlier a sleepy fishing village but now, it has transformed into a favorite place for divers. Thanks to the expanding tourism industry, its clean blue waters and serenity, it has become an important part of a tour to pattaya. There are many more quiet beaches which are still unexplored and worth visiting.

Ko Krok Beach is a sandy beach located on the east of the Coral island. Water sports such as snorkeling is a popular activity there. As you go further west, you can see other islands such as the Ko Pai Island, Ko Leum Island which are famous for snorkeling and scuba diving.

Pattaya is also known for its Cabaret and Alcazar shows. While on a trip to Pattaya, you must not miss these amazing shows of dance, music and plays on any platform including broadways or Korean fan dance. You can enjoy watching beautiful lady boys with extravagant costumes dancing on spectacular platforms.

If you are on a full day tour to Pattaya, you can explore the Flight of the Gibbon, which is the largest canopy in the world. You can experience the beauty of the jungles while you zip through Thailand's rainforests from atop the trees. The harnesses and swings are completely safe and are operated by highly trained sky ranger professionals.

Nong Nooch Gardens is not just a garden, but a stage where you can enjoy spectacular Thai cultural performances with locals performing on local music beats. It is worth watching the elegant costumes and dance movements. There are also a wide range of recreational activities such as boat paddling, elephant riding, bicycling other than the large stretches of beautiful gardens. On your trip to pattaya, don't miss the Pattaya Tiger zoo. You can enjoy watching a spectacular view of tigers, elephants, pigs and all other animals living in harmony with each other. Other than this you can also try taking some time out for the orchid gardens of Pattaya. Bangkok packages with these attractions included can definitely provide an insight into the pulse and thrive of these beautiful oriental exotica.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/thailand-take-a-tour-to-this-oriental-exotica.htm> - Article Side

Sanjana Singh - About Author:

Thailand is one of the most popular destinations of the South East Asia and a trip to Pattaya is a must if you are traveling to Thailand. If you are on a tour to Pattaya, you must not miss the beautiful beaches and Islands around. a Bangkok packages will give you an opportunity to know the culture of Thailand.

Article Keywords:

Andaman trip, Andaman packages, Andaman tour, Andaman package

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!