Article published on November 28th 2011 | Destinations

Talk to any international traveller that has spent time in the city of Chennai, India and they will tell you that you are going to visit one of the finest shopping adventure cities in the country, if not the entire world.

No matter which one you select from the many hotels Chennai has available, the staff will always offer their recommendations for the best malls and shopping plazas in the area. Here are several that youâ€™ll want to consider while vacationing in the city.

Abirami mega mall â€™ a great family shopping destination. The mall is known for its two primary attractions, its kidâ€™s world and snow world.

Ampa Mall â€™ Chennaiâ€™s largest retail shopping outlet. It features the 20-room Boutique Hotel, PVRâ€™ screen cinema multiplex, and a food court filled with a number of well known fast food businesses and other dining options from local to international cuisine.

Express Avenue â€™ one of the most modern malls in Chennai. If your Chennai accommodation is located near the heart of the city, you will quickly discover that this is the biggest mall in the area.

Chennai Citi Center â€™ opened in March of 2006, this is Chennaiâ€™s newest retail entity. There is a cinema, a large food court, a supermarket and several western style clothing stores to visit and explore.

Spencer Plaza â€™ situated on a site that dates back to colonial times; a fire destroyed the original structure and the current plaza dates back to 1983. Pretty much anything and everything that is Indian in nature can be found in the various plaza shops.
