Sweden is one of the best and affordable place to visit in Western Europe. Few years ago most of the traveller doesn't agree with this statement but nowadays things have been changed so, plan a trip to Stockholm also known as "Nordens Venedig" meaning the Venice of the North is the capital of Sweden and feel the difference. Here is the list of places you can visit there in Stockholm:-

Vasa Museum (Vasamuseet)

Vasa Museum was opened in 1990 and according to its official it is the most visited Museum in Scandinavia. This Museum is situated in Djurgarden Island and exhibit mostly 17th Century Ship and 64-gun warship that sank on her First Journey in 1628. There are few other Museums located on different places other than Stockholm which you can consider to visit:-

• Aquaria water Museum

• Swedish Museum of Architecture

• The Museum of Dance

• Museum of National Antiquities

• Toy Museum

• Museum de Vries

Gamla Stan (The Old Town)

The old town is one of the most visited place in Stockholm. The old town is just a common city it worth more. Hotels, Restaurant and shops are easily available there and the special is Xmas Market which is not a very huge market but you will be very happy to walk around holding Glogg (Mulled Wine). To avoid the crowd go early in the day. The king palace (deserve a visit) and The Nobel Museum worth a visit.

Drottningholm Palace

Drottningholm Palace is another must see place in Stockholm especially is summer on a boat. If you want to explore the beauty of Drottningholm then hire a steamer from central Stockholm and travel through it. Basically Drottningholm is famous as picnic spot but you have to carry yourself all the cuisines because this place has only one small restaurant. There you can also see Palace where live himself with his family. There is a very beautiful park inside the Palace campus. If you are planning a short tour of Stockholm then you can avoid this place because there are many more places to visit which worth more than Drottningholm.

Stockholm Canals

Your trip will not be completed if you didn't travel through Stockholm Canals. If you are lucky then you will find canals not frozen, this is one of the best things you can do on your Sweden trip. You will never realize that Stockholm is formed from many small islands if you will not go for a canal tour.

Stockholm is really a very beautiful place to be there.
