Among the many temples that are visited by devotees often, Tirupati Darshan is one such trip to this holy place that attracts pilgrims not only from various parts of India but also from every nook and corner of the globe. It is located in the Chittoor district of the state of Andhra Pradesh.

Tirupati darshan is considered to be highly auspicious as a visit to this magnificent temple wipes away all sins. The Tirupati temple stands on the top of the Tirumala Hills. It is the abode of Lord Vishnu who is called by different names in different places. In Tirupati the deity is known as Shri Venkateswara, Govinda in South India and Balaji in northern India. The very sight of the Tirupati temple gives a feeling of serenity and piety. The Tirumala Mountain has seven peaks that represent the seven hoods of the snake of Vaikuntha that is the original abode of Lord Vishnu. Apart from a visit to this temple, Tirupati is rich in cultural heritage, historical events and variety of cultures and religions that attract people from faraway lands to this amazing place. The best way to explore the wonders of Tirupati is by availing the Tirupati package tours. The guides help to enjoy the trip even more by describing every place along with its history and age old stories. To make all the arrangements for your Tirupati Darshan it is right to go for an online Tirupati booking.

Tirupati Darshan gives you an inner sight into the rituals and rites of the worship that is maintained in this temple. The yajnas and the aartis are done with great austerity. The prayers and the hymns and also the bhog or offerings made to the deity are extremely enjoyable and spreads an ethereal feeling all around. A package trip gives you the opportunity to see the innumerable temples spread over Tirupati. They portray the Dravidian style of architecture and they are mostly huge monuments. Handicrafts items are also famous of this place. Idols, toys and clay pots are carved out exquisitely by the craftsmen and makes for a good buy for tourists. Another great attraction of Tirupati Darshan is the laddoo, which is a kind of very tasty sweet that is offered to the Gods. It is available at the counter that is specially kept to distribute the prasadam.

Tirupati online booking is the best way to confirm your Tirupati Darshan. There are many travel agents that offer online booking facilities and that makes it most convenient for travelers to book their trip to Tirupati and other places also. Since Tirupati is a great touristsâ€™ destination, there are many Tirupati hotels that offer comfortable lodging facilities along with great food options. They are economic yet cozy. Some of the Tirupati hotels are Annapurna, Hotel Bliss, Kalyan Residency and many others.
