Article published on June 30th 2012 | Education

This post modern era has increased the competition between every other country to progress more and to become the most powerful country of the world. And for this the most important factor is the quality of education provided by each country. India has achieved a lot in these past sixty years after its independence, as per the data published by the Indian census in 2011 the literacy rate of India has gone up to the point of 74.04%. Our country has many world renowned and prestigious schools and colleges and Ahmedabad is one of the largest cities of the country which has come up with some of the best educational schools, colleges, industries and job opportunities.

Ahmedabad which was the former capital of Gujarat has a sound literacy rate of 79.3% with male literacy rate as 87.2% and female literacy rate as 70.7%. We can easily find a number of good educational institutes in Ahmedabad. One can enroll for English medium school; Gujarati medium school, boarding school, International school, CBSE and ICSE School, school for physically challenged kids, nursery and even kindergartens are available. As it is a metropolitan city so the good transport facility and better infrastructure of the city gives it a positive advantage and attracts many students from other cities, states and even countries.

Ahmedabad is a very cultured and harmonious city, the people of this city are not at all ignorant about the importance and need of education in today's world. Here most of the schools come under the Municipal Corporation or they are run privately by trusts, entities and corporations. A large number of schools are mostly affiliated with the Gujarat Secondary and Higher Secondary Education Board. Others are affiliated with CBSE (Central Board for Secondary Education), ICSE (Indian Certificate of secondary Education) and others by International Baccalaureate, National Institute of Open School. All the schools and other educational institutes of the city are within easy reach of students from their respective residential locations.

All the schools in the city have different education teaching strategies with one single motive of imparting good and quality education to the future of this country. Apart from this schools are satisfactorily equipped by other facilities and amenities to help a child to grow, learn and enjoy the environment to the fullest. These schools have best type of infrastructure including transport facilities with proper playgrounds and well equipped computer and other science laboratories. Proper drinking water is suitably provided throughout the day in the schools with hygiene maintained school canteens to serve healthy and nutritious snacks and other meals to students. For a proper growth of a child it not only needs education related mental growth but also cultural, sports, and dance activities related physical and psychological growth. So besides studies and exams schools must cater to these other facilities which one can find in schools of Ahmedabad.
