Economics revision course or business studies revision course? by Richard Riddell

Article published on December 1st 2011 | Education

Weâ€™ll bring you real world application to A Level exams. One of the complaints that we hear frequently in our initial assessments of what students need when it comes to Economics or Business Studies is that students often do not understand how to â€œmake it realâ€•. One of our students said yesterday, â€œIâ€™d remember the material so much more easily if I could understand exactly how principles work in the real worldâ€•.

At Exam Confidence, we take pride in our revision courses. Whether you are choosing to study an Economics revision course or a Business Studies revision course, our teachers ensure that you understand the syllabus content through practical application and examples that are memorable and make sense.

Exam Confidence Economics revision course

Whether you choose to take our Economics AS revision course or our Economics A2 revision course, you will have the choice of either Albion College, Russell Square in London or Seaford College, West Sussex. You will receive teaching from principal examiners such as Marwan Mikdadi â€“ experienced in understanding exam technique and effective at communicating exactly what you need and how you need to present it in an exam. You will have plenty of time to work on syllabus concerns (diagrams are common ailments!) with your outstanding teacher who can take the time to work with you in your small class. Your Economics AS revision course and the Economics A2 revision course in London is offered on December 19/20. Both revision courses are also offered at Seaford College on December 21/22 and we have an extra Economics AS revision course running across December 17/18.

Exam Confidence Business Studies revision course

We offer you the choice of a Business Studies AS revision course or a Business Studies A2 revision course in London on December 17/18. You can also pick Seaford College as a venue â€“ we are running a Business Studies revision course on December 19/20. Each course is unit-specific and exam board specific and you will have the excellent skills of former Chief Examiner Ian Marcouse to help you hone your exam technique and essay-writing skills. As with all of our courses, you will have plenty of opportunity to complete past paper questions and to receive detailed feedback. All the material for either your Business Studies AS revision course or your Business Studies A2 revision course will be provided for you â€“ all you need to do is bring along a brain that is ready to absorb as much as it possibly can!

You can read more about us, our philosophy and our courses as well as more information on dates and venues on our website: <http://www.examconfidence.co.uk>. Please feel welcome to give us a call with any questions. We understand that every student is unique and we are proud to tailor each of our courses to meet those individual needs. We look forward to speaking to you about how we can help your child meet their potential.
