By educating a man and we educate only a person, whereas, by educating a woman we actually educate an entire family. Education is resource which gives knowledge and freedom to utilize their rights. It has an aim to teach us rather how to think, than what to think, enhance our mind and allow us to think for ourselves and prevent the mind from occupying other thoughts. Earlier girls were denied from the access of education. There were many obstacles such as realities of poverty, political instability, regional conflict, geography, cultural and traditional values stand between girls and their prospects for education. Girls' education is essential for the development and prosperity of nations and peoples. In previous era there was a great differentiation between boys and girls. Parents used to send their male child to school and female child are not sent to school because they had a pre conceived notion that the girls are not safe outside. Any mishappening can occur if they are left free outside.

Earlier men used to think that that girls are very soft and they should be kept at home that should be kept home, and they are not suppose to work hard, not even think hard. Even though they had this kind of thought, they used to see the strength of women

Education is the relation between an individual and the society which imparts training and instructions at school level. The dispute whether girls should be given the same education as boys is getting is going on for many years and in fact in some countries it is continued. But this is also the truth that girls have shown really good progress in various fields during the last few years. There are very few fields in which girls are not efficient but this gap will be fulfilled in the coming next years as girls have already proved that they are very efficient in their respective fields. From many studies it also has been proved that girls are more efficient than boys and that they get success more fastly in comparison to boys. Therefore, it is quite necessary to educate girls in the same way boys are educated.
