

Article published on January 12th 2012 | Education

Top boarding schools India arranged classes and sessions well-equipped with smart and hi-tech amenities. Smart facilities of hi-tech laboratories and E-library empower a progressive step in the performance of these schools. Hi tech facilities in International Boarding School India are mark as exceptional methodologies of teaching to pupils.

Being a part of this innovative endeavor, Gyan Ganga International School, MP, CBSE Schools MP arrange E-libraries supplied with well stocked books, journals, national and international magazines embracing every aspects of academic studies and research information. This top boarding schools India have air-conditioned classrooms that make available the most favorable ambiance for energetic and focused teaching. The hi-tech laboratories are consider as teaching ground which enable students to carry out trial and bring to practice whatever they have learnt in their theory classes. This best residential school India possesses well-furnish research laboratory for the different subjects. Curriculums of the academic classes are practically oriented and interactive.

Computer Laboratory: GGIS set up 40 computers in their computer laboratory well equipped on LAN connection for the students of senior and junior classes.

Science Laboratory: The CBSE Schools MP is having separate Physics, Chemistry and Biology lab provided with all advanced amenities and equipments. Teachers impart and embolden scientific skill into the students through these labs. School plan and organize many science related extra-curricular activities such as exhibitions, presentations, seminars, etc. which provide students with additional opportunities of getting their scientific concepts clear.

Mathematics Laboratory: To execute practical work in mathematics well-furnished Mathematics laboratory is arrange under the command and regulation of all mathematics teachers. All these laboratories work, research and reports have separate weightage in the annual promotion of individual student.

Social Science Laboratory: Social Science laboratory at this best residential school India is well-found with lots of static and dynamic models, maps, charts and other teaching aids which are actually useful to explain the knotty subject matter to the students.

E-Library: This top boarding schools India facilitates a well-stocked E-Library to the students. Library is supplied with the advanced facilities of computer, Internet and online reading facility is also available. Library is fully provided with a range of literature, reading materials, subject books, story books, journals, pictorials, encyclopedias and other books. To update the students with the modern drift of technology, a comprehensive range of CDs and software are also available. Library collections stand out around 15000 books and is also subscribes to many journals and periodicals.

To explore interest and creativity among students, regular art and craft workshop are organized. Prominent and skilled artist tutored the students in painting, drawing, sketching, sculpture and other different types of art related to craft work for such art and craft workshop. All such hi-tech amenities contribute to all round development of students.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/education-articles/hi-tech-laboratories-and-e-library-at-top-boarding-schools-india.htm> - Article Side

Gyan Ganga - About Author:

a Gyan Ganga International School, best residential school India arranges smart classes which allow comprehensive solutions to teachers and students. Smart classes contribute a top boarding schools India in improving academic performance of their students.

Article Keywords:

Top Boarding Schools India, Top 20 Resident Schools India , CBSE Schools MP, Boarding School India, Best Boarding School, Best Residential School India, International Boarding School India, Residential School India, Top Residential School Jabalpur MP

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!