Pune is a cosmopolitan city where people of different cultures, casts, and backgrounds reside. This also brings the education and cultural hub here. Pune enjoys existence of many good and renowned collages for different subjects like arts, commerce, management and law. There was something lacking till the year 2005 in designing education, until INIFD Deccan started.

In the year 2005 Mr. Amit Agrawal started INIFD Deccan, which had unique vision and mission to deliver the best designing education in India. With the institute's launching Pune got a new dimension towards the designing education, now students who wanted to pursue interior, jewelry, fashion and textile designing courses could easily enroll.

Inter National Institute of Fashion Designing was revolutionary and won hearts of many students by providing them best facilities, study methods, infrastructure, affordable fees and assured placements which other institutes fail to do.

Courses that this institute offers are –

• B.sc in Interior / Fashion/Textile designing

• Advanced Diploma in Interior / Fashion/Textile designing

• Diploma in Interior / Fashion/Textile/ designing

• Certification and Professional course in Jewelry designing

• MBA in design Management

• Different short term courses

Finding verity of courses in a single institute is hard for any student and this is the reason why this institute has gathered name and fame.

Their appreciable efforts for assured placement assistance for their students have really highlighted the institute's credibility. Students of INIFD Deccan are well placed at many design houses, big brands, studios. Many of them are their own boss; they run profitable and well named entrepreneurs across the country. Students of INIFD have also worked as set designers in bollywood movies and TV serials.
