A Relaxing Spanish Holiday by Petier Williams

Article published on February 13th 2012 | Family

A holiday in Spain can be both relaxing and exotic if you choose to stay in one of the villas in Mijas. Situated close to the coast in the Malaga province in the Andalusian village in Spain, is this tiny but popular tourist destination of Mijas. Holiday makers from all over the world throng to the sunshine coast™ known as Costa del Sol™ to unwind on the sandy beaches and crystal clear waters. If you are planning a summer holiday, head to Mijas where you can have an overwhelming experience.

Renting Holiday Villas in Spain

A holiday in Spain will be economical if you choose villas in Spain to rent. There are several companies that offer villas at affordable rates. When you are travelling as a group with friends and family, these villas for accommodation prove to be the right choice. There are plenty of things to do and see if your villa is close to the Costa del Sol. The beautiful sandy beaches, the isolated coves and the immaculate bays will make your Spain villa holidays a memorable one.

You can conveniently book your Spanish holiday accommodation online. Online bookings for villas in Spain to rent can be made well in advance. The rent varies according to the size of the villa and the facilities offered. There are villas big enough to accommodate over 20 people.

Villas in Mijas

Mijas is considered to be a jewel of Costa del Sol. This quaint little village has retained the old time charm regardless of the tourists flocking the place. There are numerous villas in Mijas which are beautifully and aesthetically designed.

Depending on the number of visitors you can choose your villa. All the villas are well-equipped with modern amenities. There is air conditioning and heating system in all the rooms and they are fully furnished. The balconies provide breathtaking views of the greenery around. A beautifully landscaped garden is found in most of the villas where there is space set aside for barbeque. The Costa del Sol villas with pool will definitely make your holiday special.

Attractions in Mijas

Make your Spain villa holidays special by heading to the cobblestone lanes of Mijas using a burro cab. There are several lookout points where you can view the Mediterranean and the Rif Mountains. You can visit the Church of the Immaculate Conception and spend the morning at the Plaza de Toros™ which is Spain's square bullring. The Carromato de Max™ or the museum and the Cuesta de la villa™ are worth a visit. Shop at the numerous souvenir shops found all along the streets of Mijas and then head back to your Costa del Sol villas with pool for a refreshing swim.
