The Fall season is all about innovative textures and pretty colors, when it comes to makeup. One of the brand, which successfully captures attention every single season with superb and innovative collections, is Chanel. This brand's newest creation offers pretty autumnal pigments in both cool and warm tones along with high quality and rich textures. This collection underlines natural beauty; thus, just go for Les Essentiels de Chanel makeup collection for Fall 2012 to pick your new season beauty must-haves.

This Fall, Peter Philips, who is the Creative Director of Chanel Makeup, offers a twist to Chanel makeup through displaying more intense colours for the face together with a variety of looks for the eyes. The Ombre Essentielle series of monochrome eyeshadows is the star of the collection this season. With 6 various colour variations, each option is possible on the eyelids. These colour combinations offer the delicateness of natural tones, the sensuality of an intense black and the playful sparkle of gold and silver. As far as nails and lips are concerned, feminine classic hues like a stunning fuchsia or simple beige are revisited.

Chanel selects bold colors for their fall collection; however, this time the brand took the other route. This lipsticks of this collection are just divine and rich in pigment. The highlighting powder is just perfect for fall for brightening up your face as your face gets dryer during winters. Chanel Quadra Eye Shadow is a classic and beautiful neutral palette that carry shades of subtly shimmery taupe grey, velvety beige, soft pink and velvety deep black. If you want to sizzle this upcoming season, then take a look at Les Essentiels de Chanel makeup collection for fall 2012 to pick your favorite beauty boosters.

The French fashion house, Chanel, is popular for offering high quality formulas, which are not only easy to use, but also helps in maintaining the skin in fabulous condition. With this latest collection, the brand selects to put on display a range of makeup products that feature universally flattering tones.

Ensure that your eyes are defined to perfection with the brand's fabulous waterproof eyeliners that are available in two stunning shades, which are Silver Light (silver) and Noir Intense (carbon black).

The gorgeous and sheer finish blush, Joues Contraste, gives your cheekbones a natural flush. It is available in Rose Initiale that is a lovely rose tone blush, which will dare you to resist its mesmerizing style.
