Orlando's™ Finest Indian Cuisine Restaurants - the Taste of India in Orlando, Florida by John Carter

Article published on January 28th 2012 | Food

Food is the main stay of life and what more can one ask for if necessity becomes a pleasurable experience. Life could not be any better in the city of Orlando, Florida where the food platter ranges from Cuban to Mexican; Italian to Chinese and Indian. The authentic cuisines served in the number of restaurants of Orlando leave one longing to come back for the mouth watering experience all over again.

The Indians living out there do not miss much of the taste of the country because of the great number of Indian restaurants in Florida providing a wide variety of the delicious cuisines of the native land. Some of the Orlando's™ finest Indian cuisine restaurants are Tabla, Bombay Caf , India kitchen, New Punjab ; all known for their particular tastes of the different regions of one big country, India.

Tabla being one of the best Indian restaurants offers you an ultimate dining experience which includes wine, liquor and a vast menu excelling in Punjabi, Mughlai, Gujarati, south Indian and many more. The food is cooked in authentic spices and is dressed up for the person waiting on the table thus proving that they believe in serving the best.

Bombay Caf  serves creative and healthy food by making each dish unique in its way of preparation. Their dishes come from Mumbai and Delhi mainly but they strongly believe in homemade style of cooking to the sophisticated one. By doing this they bring the very rudimentary flavors of India out abroad.

India Kitchen on the other hand brings the distinctive flavors of the Chettinad cuisine of South India which is believed to be the most spiciest and aromatic cuisine of India. Mixed with the fresh spices and herbs they are prepared by the master chefs from India. They serve both vegetarian and non-vegetarian food in a very casual setting, which makes one feel at home.

Finding a purely vegetarian Indian restaurant in Orlando is a difficult task but a place like Aashirwad is known for its vegetarian cuisines as much as the non-vegetarian ones. Their dishes come from the northern region of India put on the platter by a team of dedicated staff striving to satisfy the tantalized taste buds.
