Back - $277 / Â£275

Buttocks â€" $162 / Â£101

Bikini Line - $165 / Â£110

These charges already seem quite pricey, although what you need to keep in mind is that you usually need several sets of treatments. Approximately you will need to have 4-5 treatments (based on your skin type). So if you want your legs done that would be a whopping $2010 or Â£1250 and then you may need to get your upper lip done for example which would cost $300 or Â£210. This is a lot of money to pay, and also thereâ€™s the difficulty of freeing up your diary in order to book sessions. Laser hair removal price is minimized overall in most cases if you go for an at home laser removal system.

At home laser hair reduction systems can be priced between $60 and $1200 and definitely you get what you pay for with the more pricey systems being superior. This may sound like a lot but when you grasp that you will need more than just one treatment and you may wish to do more than one body part then itâ€™s much more efficient. Even if you buy one of the most effective systems and want to do a handful of body parts itâ€™s going to work out more affordable. The laser hair treatment prices will be the most competitive or best value done by a pro only when you are having a tiny area done, like your upper lip or eyebrows. In all other cases itâ€™s almost certainly better value selecting a hand held at home laser hair removal device. Although the laser hair removal price can be lessened at a clinic if you are having many treatment â€” so ask about the prices! Additionally you may well just be more relaxed with having your laser hair treatment handled by a pro; their hardware is more powerful than units made for home use.

Laser Hair Removal Costs vs Traditional Methods

If you think laser hair reduction is too much regardless of if it's at home, or professionally, then give thought to the other possibilities. Laser hair removal is long term. That means when your treatment is finished you wont need to agonize about hair treatment ever again. You donâ€™t need to agonize about obtaining razor blades, trimmers or hair removal creams ever again. This will save you loads of time! So in general laser hair removal charges are high shorter term, but in particular with at home laser hair treatment systems, it can save you time and money in the long run.
