Don't get left out in the cold. First Energy Heating and Cooling will keep your home or business warm and toasty. The best way to assure your comfort this winter is to sign up for our Automatic Heating Oil Delivery Plan. You will never have to worry about running out of fuel because you forgot to call for an oil delivery. With our plan, we can calculate your usage based on accurate calculations of weather and temperatures. When your fuel tank is in need of a fuel delivery, our tanker truck will automatically show up at your home and refill the tank. The responsibility is ours. You never need to worry about running out of fuel in the dead of winter again. The process is clean and automatic.

If you prefer to take control of your heating oil delivery , you have the option of calling for an oil delivery on your schedule. Either way works for us, if it is the best choice for you. You might consider our monthly payment plan as a terrific way to balance and average your oil delivery payments over a 10 month period. This method can take the sting out of those payments made during the high usage months of January and February. You will agree that this method is both convenient and budget smart.

Oil delivery is undoubtedly the most vital part of our business, but at First Energy, we offer a complete range of services and products to insure the comfort of our customers. Of utmost importance is the availability of 24 Hour Emergency Service for our heating oil delivery customers. Others like the option of carrying our annual service policy and having their systems tested, cleaned and tuned regularly. We can offer you any of these options so that you can be sure that your heating and air conditioning systems are working to their full potential.

We stake our reputation on keeping you satisfied as we have for over 30 years. Our technicians are the best. They are skilled and experienced in all aspects of heating and cooling. It is because of their efforts and the positive response from our heating oil delivery and service customers that First Energy Heating & Cooling continues to grow. Our fuel oil prices are the lowest in the area, and our service is unsurpassed. We have grown to include even more parts of north Boston in our delivery area.
