You will seldom come across houses where people have a powder room, exclusively for enhancing their appearance. Usually, people create a place to fulfill their morning ablutions. But, there are some creative ones out there, who envision a place more than the flush and wash routine. With some mint fresh ideas, this room can be induced with the smell of talcum and perfume. Your guests would be rejuvenated when they would want to do a quick re-touch of their make-up after a scrumptious dinner.

Having a powder room means you belong to the elite category, where you live in style. It's an indulgence that you can afford by may be cutting down the balcony space. You may also convert the closet space and make it into a small powder room. Dress up your powder room in an easy and ongoing way.

Install laminate countertop and high pressure laminate, to avoid the wet and shaky countertops. Play with colors, and get the desired look, for the countertops with granite, stone or hardwood. They are easy to clean and maintain. Like the shades of your makeup, your room too would bloom, with varied colors. Give your basin, the much needed twist, by choosing a ceramic or a glass bowl fitting, above the laminate countertop. Using high pressure laminate on the countertops, will give them the required strength and durability.

Placing store fixtures in the room, is an amazing way to store things in the powder room. Add some space to the room with store fixtures. They have revolutionized the way storage spaces appear, and they come in super cool colors and textures. Laminate countertop with high pressure laminate has come as a saviour for bathrooms and powder rooms, as they come with anti-water seepage and anti-bacterial quality. It keeps your powder room clean and hygienic. An added advantage with these rooms is, now you can give the room a themed look of your choice.

Add lights to create drama to your room, and place lighters above the mirror, or may be a small painting on the wall. Brightly clad one wall, with the color of your choice or with a wall paper. Or keep a few magazines in the room on top of the store fixtures to add to the entertainment factor. You can also add to the entertainment factor by playing some music in the background. Your guests will seek some or the other excuse to enter your powder room!
