

Article Side

How Stock Market Browser can give you an edge in stock market by William Jackson

Article published on June 26th 2012 | Investing

Making money in stock market requires your knowledge and skills. Rather than financial strength, what counts more when you are investing in the market is your investment skills. It is your tactics and the strategies, keeping updates of the latest market news and making use of the latest tools and technologies that can help you win money in this field. For the stock traders Stock Market Browser is a beneficial and perfect tool that enables you to have an instant snapshot of the total stock market. SMB or Stock Market Browser lets you have snapshot from a top view and then down to the individual companies.

Stock market is a tough field where you cannot last long enough or make any money if you do not follow good tactics, do not know what you are doing or do not make use of the stock market tools. A strategic use of them can help you find success on the way. To be successful in the stock market set your goals first and use tools as aid. The stock market tools will find information you need in the easier way.

A few things to know about Stock Market Browser:

Stock Market Browser provides a distinctive way of finding investment opportunity. Before investing you must have sufficient knowledge about the sector or industry of the company for which you are planning to invest. This is where Stock Market Browser comes in use.

When you have an investment goal and you are looking forward to owing companies in a specific sector and industry, with Stock Market Browser you can easily browse the list of companies within a specific sector and industry.

Stock Market Browser lets you setup the screen criteria on the basis of P/E, ROE %, dividend yield, market cap, P/B, Net profit margin, debt to equity ratio and price to free cash flow for getting the particular company in that industry.

With Stock Market Browser you can export the screened result to .csv format when you like to go for further post processing. Just make double clicks on the symbol and bring out the detailed information. This will make your decision for investment much quicker and easier.

For selected symbol detailed information like profile, chart and news is provided.

Stock Market Browser is the best possible way of securing the price up number and the percentage for measuring the overall sector, market and industry performance.

SMB is capable of instantly monitoring around 215 industries, 9 sectors and over 6000 publicly traded stock

For Stock Market Browser you generally need to pay a onetime fee, there is no further subscription fee. You will also get free upgrade for future release.

Analyxit, the well known software development company based in Cupertino, California is focused on making financial and investment software application catering the needs of individual investors. The education and investment tools offered by Analyxit, help the investors interpret the data into useful information effectively so that they can take wise decision. Stock Market Browser from Analyxit helps you find investment opportunity and achieve your investment goals.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/investing-articles/how-stock-market-browser-can-give-you-an-edge-in-stock-market.htm> - Article Side

William Jackson - About Author:

William Jackson is a stock market investment consultant who has been rendering a great service for the last 15 years. He wants the investors to make use of the latest tools so that they can have success with investment. In this article he is providing us information on Stock Market Browser.

Article Keywords:

data download, stock, stock market, stock fundamental data, stock historical data, stock market browser, metastock format

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!