Your wedding day is undoubtedly one of the most important and very special days of your life. Surely, you would like to leave no stone unturned when it comes to making your wedding celebrations unique. When you are planning your wedding trousseau, guest list, menu, location and food, make sure that you include a wedding videographer in your wedding plans. Although still photographs can be captured for memories sake, a video tape is a good keepsake. You can also gift these tapes to your loved ones who were unable to make it for your wedding.

How to Choose the Right Essex Wedding Videographer?

Planning a wedding can be quite exciting, fun, yet lot of effort. Today, wedding planners offer so many creative ideas to make your wedding unique in every way. Today's improved technology has the ability to capture all those unique moments in a compact recorder; all you need to do is hire a good wedding videographer. However, choosing the right guy to film your wedding can be a little complicated, but here are some tips on how to choose the right Essex wedding videographer

- He should have good credentials

- Must own state-of-the-art DSLR cameras, best audio equipment and non-linear digital editing systems

- Ideally should use a broad cast camera for filming the event

- Must have experience, skill and craftsmanship

- Must be assertive and capable of directing the wedding events

- He should be flexible in terms of time and price

- He must be willing to give you a demo to help you understand the quality of his filming

Factors That Affect the Cost of Filming:

The overall price that a wedding videographer will charge you, depends on the following factors

- Initial consultation

- Number of hours of video coverage

- Number of recorders

- Internet broadcast (as an option)

- Editing of the footage

- Special effects

- Type of tape; DVD or Blu-Ray

â€¢ Number of copies

How to Save Money?

Essex wedding videographer offers a very flexible package. You can customize the package the way you want it. Communicate clearly about what you want with your service provider, so that on the wedding day, his priority will be to capture only the important moments first. Avoid having fancy special effects in the recording to save costs. Eliminating all that you may not want from the prescribed package will reduce the overall cost. Choosing a combined package of photography as well as recording from the same Essex wedding videographer will also reduce the overall recording costs.
