Coimbatore is the second largest city in the Indian state of Tamil Nadu in south. It is the highest literacy rate city in India with 80%. In the latest survey done by TOI, a leading newspaper of India has published that the CBSE (Central Board of Secondary Education) schools in Coimbatore are taking large number of students enrolments in year 2011- 2012. Many parents are having the notions that CBSE schools are preparing their students much better for competitive exams. Many entrance exams questions are based on NCERT books syllabus and the general knowledge which are used in CBSE syllabus. Till last year IGCSE and ICSE schools were gaining more admissions as compare to CBSE schools.

The differentiation of the syllabus in various boards made the parents puzzled so that they were more inclined to the CBSE board which is similar in all over the India. People were thinking the central board's syllabus is more appropriate for their children studies over the state board syllabus.

Many parents are also finding difficulty while they are migrating to other states to get their ward enrolment there because IB and IGCSE boards are not even recognized in India. They are simply following the international curriculums in their schools but are not affiliated to any Indian or foreign boards of education, said by a local parent in Coimbatore.

We can conclude some of the top schools list in Coimbatore such as Angappa Edu. Trust Sr Sec School, Carmel Garden Matriculation Hr Sec School, Shree Sarasswathi Vidhyaah Mandheer, Chinmaya International Res School etc.

Dehradun is the capital city of the Indian state Uttarakhand in the north India. Dehradun is home town for some of the India's most ancient and elite schools. The Doon School, Convent of Jesus and Mary, Rashtriya Indian Military College, Welham Girls School and Welham Boys School are some of the prominent names in the list of best schools in Dehradun. St. Thomas' College, St. Joseph's Academy, Kendriya Vidyalaya ONGC are reminded as the India's most prestigious and well performing schools. Several Indian celebrities have attended these schools including former prime ministers and film stars like Rajiv Gandhi, Himani Shivpuri and Udit Goswami, all are the ex students of the Doon School.

Dehradun is the place which is not only well known for its climatic reasons because it is ranged with the mount Himalaya, but also as the major hub of renowned CBSE, IGSC and boarding (hostel) and day boarding schools. People from ancient times to till now are well interested to send their children in these hostels or schools.

Delhi is the national capital of India. Schools in Delhi are administrated by either directorate of education (NCT of government) or the private organizations. Private schools in Delhi are English medium schools but also using Hindi as the language of instruction for the students some times. These are affiliated to one of three administering bodies: the Council for the Indian School Certificate Examinations (CISCE), the Central Board for Secondary Education (CBSE) or the National Institute of Open Schooling (NIOS). All those schools are always grabbing the top ranks in national levels of school annual results and in other co-curriculars. Here teachers are giving more stress to improve child psychology or understanding level first, and then they can easily cope up with any task of their schooling and life itself.
