Sonapat is an ancient city that comes in NCR and falls in the state Haryana. It is just 20kms away from the capital of the country and thus has many responsibilities to fulfill. Sonapat is evolving in term of education and is expanding its limit. Many of the children migrate to Sonapat for the purpose of their schooling education and for that they require boarding facilities within the premises of the school. Students that arrive here for schooling education are young in age and not mature enough to live outside the school hostel that is why parents who send their children prefer schools with the boarding facilities.

The best boarding school in the city is Delhi Public School that is located in Bahalgarh - Meerut Road Khewra. The school strives for excellence in academics and the campus of the school is spread in 12 acres of area in a pollution free environment. The boarding facility of the school is based on the principle of "home away from home". Only students above 3rd grade are allowed for the boarding. The school doesn't promise luxury but it promises the growth of the young minds. The school gives admission to even the students of any other country due to this a student learn to adjust with different culture and religion and get to respect humanity over caste. The rooms of the building are fully air conditioned and the building is equipped with entertaining facilities so that they can relax their minds.

The cafeteria of the boarding offers both kinds of dishes i.e. vegetarian and non-vegetarian. The food of all taste and various cultures is available to satisfy the need of a student coming from different background. The boarding house of the school is well equipped with the facilities like INFIRMARY, PREP/TUTORIAL, and LAUNDRY/BARBER etc. Outing for the students are organized time to time so that students don't feel out of this world.
